

ISSUE 2/2003

JULY 2003

Centurion

THE AMERICAN EXPRESS CENTURION MAGAZINE

THE FRENCH RIVERA — THE ULTIMATE SUMMER HOLIDAY

LISBON — PORTUGUESE CHARM

CLASSIC CARS — THE RETURN OF THE E-TYPE

INTERIORS SPECIAL — STYLISH HOME DESIGN

P1

INTERNATIONAL

Founded by Formula One World Champion Damon Hill, P1 is a ground breaking new private club that gives its members the opportunity to drive the greatest supercars in the world, including the Aston Martin Vanquish and Lamborghini Murcielago, without the burdens and limitations of ownership. Membership is by invitation only and limited to just 250 people in the UK. There are two membership levels costing £10,000 (US$ 16,360) and £12,500 (US$20,450) per year and a one-off joining fee, which gives points and mileage allowances. On average, members enjoy around 60 to 70 days of driving a year. Tel: +44 (0) 1372 374400, or visit www.p1international.com

Countryside Escape

Located in five acres of stunning gardens, 'The Horn of Plenty' is a delightful Georgian house hotel providing the perfect antidote to urban life. Located near Tavistock in South Devon, with just ten guest rooms it feels like staying in an elegant private home. The staff are really friendly and will do anything to help you make the most of your stay. Michelin-star chef Peter Gorton creates a mouthwatering menu for the restaurant which overlooks the beautiful Tamar valley. www.TheHornOfPlenty.co.uk

WORLDWIDE NEWS

Breathtaking Baja

The Esperanza Resort enjoys glorious views of the Sea of Cortez on one side and a dramatic sweep of desert on the other. Located at the tip of Mexico's Baja Peninsula, the Resort manages to provide guests with all the lavish luxuries one would wish for, while retaining the casual charm of true Baja style. This is reinforced with authentic Mexican handcrafts and distinctive original art on the walls of the guest accommodation. The six private villas offer an even more pleasurable and spacious experience. Full service spa facilities are on-site with championship golf, scuba and sport fishing nearby. www.esperanzaresort.com

Asprey handbags

The new 167 Asprey Bag Collection is inspired by archives from the 1930's yet blends the past with present and future using the best craftsmanship and quality with modern glamour. The name is taken from the Bond Street address, its home since 1847 and the site of the new flagship store to be launched later this year.

Available in four new stunning designs, each have bespoke options so you can individualise your bag. These highly practical classics can be used for day and will also last a lifetime.

www.asprey.com

